Alfa Tech Trio!

HeatKeeper® Refractory Brick

The HeatKeeper® brick, made at the Alfa factory in Italy, retains heat better than lava stone or ceramic, ensuring fast and perfect pizza baking crispy on the outside and soft on the inside.

DoubleDown Ceramic Superwool® Insulation

The DoubleDown Ceramic Superwool® insulation, placed between the stainless steel walls of Alfa ovens, provides twice the heat resistance compared to the rock wool used in other domestic ovens, retaining heat more effectively for flawless cooking. Lower-end ovens, on the other hand, are often not insulated.

Patented Full Effect Full Circulation Flue System®

In competitor ovens, heat escapes directly from the chimney at the top. Not in Alfa ovens: thanks to the patented Full Effect Full Circulation Flue System®, hot air circulates inside the chamber and is pushed downward, improving the heating of both the brick and the pizza.
